

Overview: Service-Obligated Providers in New York State

What Is a Service-Obligated Provider?

A health care professional who agrees to practice in underserved communities in exchange for incentives such as scholarships, loan repayment, or J-1 Visa waivers. Service-obligated programs typically require placement in federal or state designated shortage areas or facilities.

2,000+

fulfilling service obligations in New York State (as of March 2022)

33%

increase in service-obligated programs participation (between 2020 and 2022)

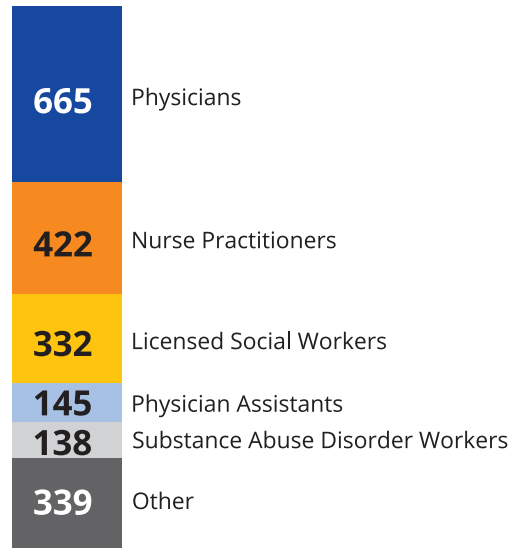

75%

participate in federally sponsored programs (ie, National Health Services Corps)

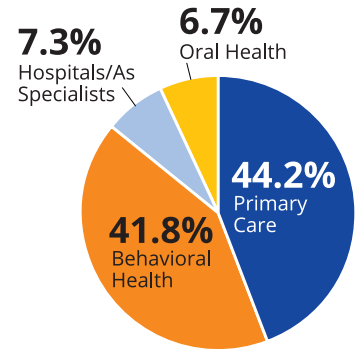

Who Are They?

Nearly One-Third Are Physicians

44% Work in Primary Care

Where Do They Practice?

44% of Service-Obligated Providers Practice in NYC

